

HP X4000b Bluetooth Mouse

Stunning style. Winning wireless. Mobility at its best

The high-end design of the HP Bluetooth Mouse X4000b mimics the motion of a fast sports car. But the fun doesn't stop there. This comfortable mouse also features Bluetooth connectivity, 9-month battery life¹ and a highly-precise laser sensor.

Masterful, modern design

Look at the HP Bluetooth Mouse X4000b. What do you see? Sculpted shape. Smooth edges. Sleek form. Sweeping, seductive contours. Abundant soft surfaces. These elite elements come together in exquisite all-day comfort.

Life-enhancing productivity

The HP Bluetooth Mouse X4000b not only looks stunning, it also improves your mobility. Advanced Bluetooth wireless keeps you connected even when you're on the go and the laser sensor works on most surfaces.²

Blissful Bluetooth connection

This absolutely changes the navigation game. The HP Bluetooth Mouse X4000b replaces the USB connection to save a port spot. Great news for tablet and Ultrabook™ users where extra USB ports are at an all-time premium.
